Men's Discipleship Ministry of Lighthouse Alliance Church

2009 Training manual

"Rather train yourselves for godliness; for while bodily training is of some value, godliness is of value in every way, as it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come."

-1 Timothy 4:7b-8

“No soldier gets entangled in civilian pursuits, since his aim is to please the one who enlisted him.”

-2 Timothy 2:4

The Mission

To unite men of God in disciplined pursuit of Jesus.

It seems strange that men can attend the same church for years, talk to each other every week and attend various fellowship events together, yet never truly knowing each other any better no less drawing any closer to Jesus. Ministries like Promise Keepers have attempted to correct this, but tend to see short-lived results. There may be a few reasons why.

1. Men's ministries tend to specialize in holding men accountable in the area of lust. This is a fruit of what is in the man's heart. Focusing on the fruit will not solve anything if the root is not tended to.
2. Most accountability relationships center on vague questions that allow for vague answers and little or no progress is ever made.
3. Many ministries focus on external aspects of the Christian life (being a husband, father, worker, neighbor, etc.). This is fine, but such little focus is giving on walking in the Spirit, that much of these efforts remain works of the flesh.
4. Often men's events lend themselves to getting men “fired up.” The problem is, untended fires will quickly diminish.

It is striking how close men become when they serve in the armed forces together. There is something about fighting side by side with someone and having your life depend on them that creates a life-long bond like nothing else can. If this happens with physical combat, how much more could this happen as we fight the spiritual battle together? One cannot help but notice how many times the apostle Paul uses military analogies to describe the Christian life – from his exhortations to Timothy to his vivid description of the armor of God.

The Battle Plan

Becoming a part of the Band of Brothers involves a 1-year “enlistment.” You will partner yourself with one other brother as well as being a part of the entire Band of Brothers. Here are the expectations for that first year.

1. Read through the entire Bible from Genesis to Revelation (at least 4 chapters a day). In the second year, that will increase to reading through the Bible 2x – once every six months. In the third year, the challenge will increase to reading through the Bible 3x – once every four months. For each level, the commitment will be to read the Bible every day WITHOUT FAIL.
(Colossians 3:16, Psalm 1:2-3)
2. For the first four months, commit to praying at least 30 minutes every day WITHOUT FAIL. For the next four months, commit to praying at least 45 minutes every day WITHOUT FAIL. In The final four months, commit to praying at least 60 minutes every day WITHOUT FAIL. Starting in the second year, the challenge will be to maintain praying at least one hour every day WITHOUT FAIL.
(1 Thessalonians 5:17, Ephesians 6:18)
3. Commit to sharing the Gospel with at least one person (in person) either verbally or by handing a tract every month for the first six months. For the final six months, this will increase to at least two people every month. Starting in the second year, the challenge will be to maintain sharing with at least two people every month.
(Mark 16:15, Acts 1:8)

4. Memorize two Bible verses every month (assigned verses will be given and all will work on same verses).

(Psalm 119:11, Joshua 1:8)

5. Memorize the books of the Bible in order following a prescribed schedule. In the second year, you will memorize the major theme of every New Testament book according to list that will be given to you. In the third year, you will memorize the major theme of every Old Testament book according to a list that will be given to you.

(2 Timothy 2:15)

6. Attend worship every week, unless there is illness. If you must work or be out of town on Sunday, attend a mid-week or Sunday night service somewhere, or find a church in your vacation area.

(Hebrews 10:25, Acts 2:46)

7. Commit to call your brother every week on either Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday – the same time on the same day as you each determine is best for your schedules. A list of questions is given below.

(Proverbs 27:17)

8. Actively use your spiritual gifts in an “official” ministry inside or outside your local church. In the second year, the challenge will be to develop and increase your use of those gifts.

(Ephesians 4:11-13, 1 Corinthians 12:7)

9. Attend four Band of Brothers “boot camps” every year. These will be held from 8 AM – 12 PM on a Saturday. Two of the boot camps will focus on intensive times of Bible study, worship, and prayer. The other two will deal with service projects inside and outside the church.

10. Maintain sexual purity by not taking second or prolonged looks at other women.

(1 Thessalonians 4:3, Matthew 5:27-28)

Out of appreciation for the wives who have allowed their husbands to invest so much time throughout the year in this discipleship, we will provide child care so that the ladies can have time out to do something for themselves.

Some of this may seem like a challenge. Good – that’s the point. It is too easy to lower the bar and make things as easy as possible. It is our desire to raise the bar and have high expectations (with great grace) to move forward in Christ and be the men of God we are called to be. At the end of the first year, you will have:

- read through the entire Bible from cover to cover
- spent nearly 300 hours in prayer
- shared the Gospel with at least 18 people
- memorized 24 Bible verses dealing with practical as well as theological issues
- memorized all the books of the Bible in order
- attended at least 52 church services
- had 52 heart-to-heart talks with your brother
- grown in your service to the Lord
- spent 8 hours in boot camps in God’s Word, worship and prayer and 8 hours in boot camps serving practical needs in the name of Christ
- broken the chains of lust in your heart

If you see these as worthy goals, we invite you to enlist! A kick-off gathering will be held in early December.

“Be strong, and show yourself a man, and keep the charge of the Lord your God, walking in His ways and keeping His statutes, His commandments, His rules, and His testimonies...”

-1 Kings 2:2b-3a

Weekly Discussion Questions for Brothers...

These questions are designed for simple “yes” or “no” answers. Further information can be shared for each question.

1. Did you read the Bible every day this week WITHOUT FAIL? What did God say to you through your reading?
2. Did you spend the assigned amount of time in prayer every day WITHOUT FAIL? How has God been speaking to you in those times?
3. Did you, in person, somehow share the Gospel with the assigned number of people? Talk about it.
4. Are you memorizing the assigned verses? Recite them.
5. Have you memorized the assigned books of the Bible in order? Recite them.
6. Did you attend a church service this week? How did God speak to you there?
7. Did you serve using your spiritual gifts this week? How? What did you learn?
8. Have you cleared your schedule for the next Boot Camp?
9. Did you take any second or prolonged look at a women (other than your wife) at any time this past week?
10. Did you pray for me every day this week?
11. How can I pray for you?

Close in prayer

It is vital that these conversations remain absolutely confidential between the two brothers, unless otherwise agreed by both brothers. Breakdown in confidentiality will destroy the entire Band of Brothers ministry.

Brothers will want to determine how to handle continued failure in any of these areas. We want to show grace, but we do not want to dismiss apathy in regards to discipline and growth. Perhaps if expectations for one particular area are not met for three consecutive weeks, maybe one brother has to buy coffee or dinner for the other brother. Perhaps if a brother persists in lust for more than three consecutive weeks, it will be determined that the other brother will contact the offending brother's wife. Both brothers must agree to these “sanctions” in advance of the offense.
